GREETINGS

Vancouver is a City that takes pride in the fitness of its citizens and in its diversity. It is a City where the challenge of individual excellence is marked by such international events as our marathon and triathlon. We celebrate the performing arts and all they do to bring people together and create understanding with events like Folk Fest, the Children's Festival and a whole host of multicultural festivals.

Ours is a City also known for its hospitality. The gay and lesbian community have worked hard to make Celebration '90 an inclusive community event.

Congratulations to the organizers and hundreds of volunteers who have worked to provide opportunities for athletic and cultural participation for everyone.

Yours truly,

 Gordon Campbell,
 MAYOR

Minister of Communications Ministre des communications
 The honourable L'honorable
 Marcel Masse

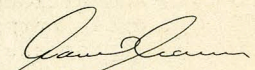

Taking place for the first time in Canada, Celebration '90: Gay Games III and Cultural Festival combines culture and sports into one grand event; my best wishes for the success of this premiere.

This festival is a crossroads for exchange that will enable participating countries to introduce their own culture and athletic elite to the international scene.

Ces huit jours de compétitions sportives et artistiques sont le point culminant des heures d'efforts que nos athlètes et nos artistes ont consacrés à leur recherche de l'excellence.

I am particularly pleased that a cultural element has been added to the sports component, which will reflect Canada's dynamic personality. I am certain the Canadian delegation will depict our country's energy and creativity.

Je souhaite bonne chance à tous les athlètes et à tous les artistes qui se mesureront au cours de Celebration '90.

Dear Athletes, Artists, Volunteers & Friends:

Welcome to the greatest amateur athletic and cultural event on earth this year -- "Celebration '90: Gay Games III & Cultural Festival."

Nowhere else on earth in 1990 are so many athletes and artists coming together at one time for such a great purpose: to reach for personal bests in an atmosphere of celebration, pride & joy.

Please join us in acknowledging and thanking Metropolitan Vancouver Athletics & Arts Association -- together with Vancouver's entire Gay & Lesbian Community -- not only for keeping the hopes and dreams of the worldwide Gay Games movement alive. But also for continuing to nurture and grow the quadrennial Gay Games into an event truly representative of our global gay community's rich diversity, talent and vitality.

We hope each of you will be able to enjoy as many of the sporting and cultural events as possible this week. And we also hope you will carry home a piece of your Gay Games experience to share with friends and family wherever in the world you live.

Until we meet again in 1994 ...

Very Warmest Regards,

Rick Peterson

CELEBRATION '90 GAY GAMES III AND CULTURAL FESTIVAL

Greetings Everyone!

The Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Vancouver Athletic and Arts Association would like to thank and welcome all the athletes, artists, staff and volunteers who have contributed so much to making Celebration '90: Gay Games III and Cultural Festival a huge success.

It has been a long but rewarding process to prepare for an event of this magnitude. It is with great pleasure that after four years of planning, both here in Vancouver and around the globe, we can gather together to celebrate the fruits of our labour.

The Gay Games are an ever growing, ever evolving movement - which this year will witness over 8,500 registered participants in 29 sports and 14 cultural events. We can all take great pride in the fact that all this takes place under our unique and inclusive philosophy of participation, welcoming everyone regardless of age, ability, sex, race or citizenship.

It is a fact that Gay Games III will be the largest multi-sport, multi-nation athletic event to take place in the world this year. Further, the quality and scope of our Cultural Festival, which highlights the creative artistic achievements of lesbians and gays, is unsurpassed.

Everyone at Celebration '90 will be a winner. You are all invited to enjoy as many festival events as you can manage. May your visit to this spectacular event be one of the highlights of your life. On that note we say, "let the Games begin"!

Best of luck to you all,

Mark J. Mees
Executive Director
on behalf of the Board of Directors

The Dr. Tom Waddell Trophy for Most Outstanding Participant

As founder of the Gay Games movement, Tom Waddell held the personal belief that to do one's personal best was the ultimate goal of any athletic endeavor. The Games were conceived as an opportunity for thousands of individuals to experience the thrill and joy of international competition. Gay Games are built on the principle of inclusion — any person of any age, race, ability or sex is encouraged to strive for their personal best.

The Dr. Tom Waddell Trophy is a gift from Vancouver to the Federation of Gay Games. Contributions to the project have come entirely from within Vancouver's lesbian and gay community. Rob Neyts, facilitator of the Waddell Trophy Project thanks the following contributors: Mack MacKinnon of Mack's Leather, Phil Moon of Numbers, Bob Moore of The Garden Spa, Gary Penny of Denman Station, Terry Wallace of the Royal Pub, Robert Stashewsky, Richard Dopson, Dean Ryane, Sushi Bar, Easter, Bob Asselstine, Shawn Kelly of San Francisco and all those who donated at the many fundraisers.

The Tom Waddell Trophy will be awarded for the first time at Closing Ceremonies on August 11 to the Most Outstanding Participant, an individual who inspires great pride in sports, culture or volunteerism, and one who has participated at his or her personal best.

The recipient will be selected by a committee including Lenore Beaky, Dee Farrell, Bart Hopple, Paul Mart, Rob Neyts and the presenters Brent Nicholson Earle and Sara Lewinstein, Tom Waddell's widow.

Praise the Volunteers!

Celebration '90 is some kind of mad miracle. What else can you call it when a handful of people with a minute budget host over 10,000 guests for a week of sport and song?

Our volunteers are making it happen — all praise to them. They're doing every kind of job from long range planning to billeting participants. They're Lower Mainland Everyperson — from executive and student to retiree. There are 1,200 volunteers as we go to press and many more as you read this. They're people who value what these Games stand for, and want to do their bit to show where their values lie. And they're making these Games possible as a result.

As you enjoy the multitude of events this week, take a moment to reflect — all of it is the miracle made by our volunteers.

From the Board of Directors and staff at Celebration '90 — thank you.

Mark Mees Executive Director

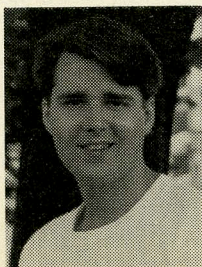

Mark's involvement with M.V.A.A.A. began in 1986 when he signed on as a board member to work as the treasurer and help prepare the Vancouver bid for Gay Games III. Mark also competed in the volleyball tournament at Gay Games II in San Francisco. "My experience at Gay Games II was the highlight of my life — I'm sure only to be surpassed by our Games here in Vancouver."

Mark became sports co-chair in 1987, working with co-chairs Louise Williams and Shelly Gahagan for over two years. As sports co-chair, he traveled at his own expense to Berlin, Holland, Frankfurt and Paris and across Canada to Winnipeg and Toronto on outreach visits to recruit participants for Gay Games III. "It's personally very exciting for me to see so many European athletes at these Games."

Shawn Kelly, executive director at Gay Games II, functioned as consulting executive director before Mark took over the position in January of 1990. "I really want to thank Shawn for his tremendous work that made it so easy for me to step into the job."

Mark's involvement with Celebration '90 and lesbian and gay sport in Vancouver goes back many years. "The amount of work that has gone into these Games by hundreds of people is just unbelievable. I can't describe the excitement we all feel about this event, it's going to be fabulous!"

Mary Brookes Office Manager

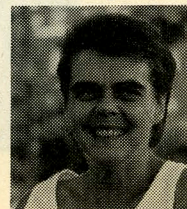

Mary has been actively involved in the lesbian and gay community for many years. She has worked extensively in the women's community encouraging women to become involved in Celebration '90. "It's really been important to ensure women's involvement in these Games, and I think the numbers of women athletes attests to our success."

Mary was the first staff member for Celebration '90, establishing the volunteer and membership base, sports contacts and many of the committees. In the 3 years that Mary has been with the Games, she has seen it grow from mere dreams into a huge international event. "When I started I supplied the office with my own stationary and coffee. I thought the Games would be a 3 day sports festival — what we have now is simply unbelievable."

Mary notes that the Games have meant women and men working together. "Celebration '90 has been a real bridge-builder in our community, it's given us all opportunities to learn a lot from each other."

"The list of people who worked with me over the years would go on for miles. I really want to thank my friends that have cooked me dinner, kept me sane and given me tremendous support over the years. And thanks to Shawn Kelly for his support and encouragement."

Mary thinks of the Games as the birth of the baby. "We're making history here — I can't describe my excitement in being part of that history. My wish is the Games will be a legacy for the Vancouver community forever."

BADMINTON

With over 90 athletes, almost equally divided between men and women, the Badminton tournament at Celebration '90 promises to be very exciting. Approximately ten different countries and three continents will be represented — reinforcing the fact that Celebration '90 is indeed an international festival.

The Badminton tournament will run August 7 and 8 at the Cameron Recreation Centre in Burnaby. The lights go on at 9 am both singles, doubles and mixed doubles games. Spectator seating is very limited so come early if you plan on catching some of the action! The days ends at 7 pm so there will be plenty of time for everyone to enjoy Vancouver's hospitality and the myriad of cultural offerings. So let's have lots of fun and let the Games begin!

A special freethrow contest for women's teams will be held early in the tournament. Date and time of that contest to be announced.

Teams will play about five games each. International rules shall apply for both the women's and mens's events; women shall use the small ball and men the regulation size ball.

BILLIARDS

Over 200 participants are registered to compete in billiards — double the number of entrants in 1986 at Gay Games II. Billiards will feature 8 and 9 ball play for both singles and team events for women and men.

A standard elimination tournament will determine the champion in each event. Positions for opening rounds will be drawn by lot. A coin toss in team events will determine the team that posts its players line-up first or second and the opening break shot. Winner of the coin toss in individual events has the choice of opening break shot.

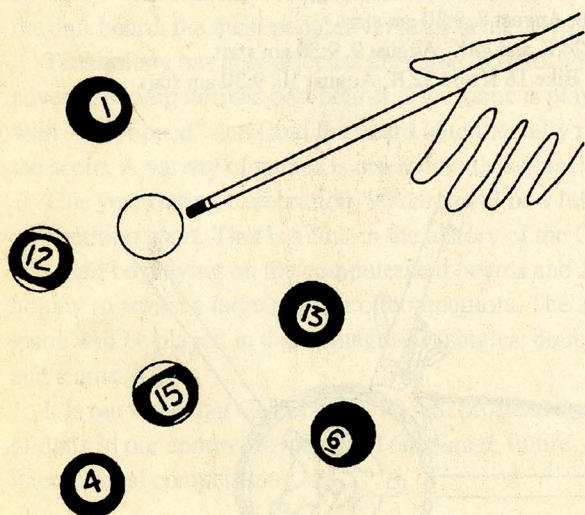

Many thanks to Charles Dyer at the Heritage House Hotel for his support and assistance.

BOWLING

The American Bowling Congress and The Women's International Bowling Congress in North America boast a paid annual membership of over six million in North America alone, and the Congress' estimate is that 10 million people in the world bowl on a regular basis in a league format. There is a huge gay and lesbian population contained in these estimates.

In North America today there are approximately 100 leagues and 23,000 bowlers who hold active membership in the International Gay Bowling Organization. There are another 50 - 80 gay and lesbian leagues who do not belong to IGBO INC. Add to this the figures European and Australian members of our community, and we see a sport that easily has the highest participation level in the lesbian and gay world.

Our sport in the current edition of the Gay Games is built on the strong foundation given to us by the bowling Co-chairs of Gay Games I and II. We have made some changes, including opening the sport to participation by those who wish to participate, and not just to one representative per city or area. We have also worked for equal participation of men and women in an activity where skill — and not just genetic muscle structure — determines the outcome. We have reminded all participants that the key to the sport is not necessarily winning, but being together and participating together. We hope and believe that this is one more step towards a goal of personal achievement and personal best.

Our most important innovation is to introduce the use of Three Divisions, based on verifiable averages, eliminating the need of a bowler of lower skill level to compete against one of a much higher capability. Therefore, all participants have a chance at achieving a medal, not just those of superior skill and long years of practice.

To all who have come from all over the world to bowl, a special welcome. Through the growth of our sport, we look for a feeling of unity, fellowship and communication in our sport to extend throughout the world, and to contribute to a deeper understanding of all areas of lesbian and gay society.

CROQUET

What to wear? White, of course! That's right, Celebration '90 will include that least strenuous of competitive sports — croquet.

Over 30 avid croquet players from around the world including San Francisco, Atlanta, Seattle, Sweden and New Zealand are participating in this event.

Croquet is particularly enjoyable for Persons With Aids because it requires less energy and stamina than other sports.

"Croquet is a wonderful leisure sport, where fun is emphasized over competition," say co-chairs Craig Orchard and Jolly Steussy Baker.

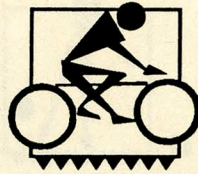

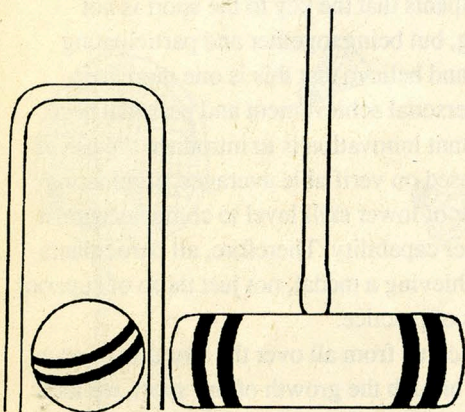

Best of luck to all participants!

DARTS

Most people know of the game of darts. Many a household has a board set up in the family room and most bars and pubs have a board tucked away somewhere.

Legend has it that the game originated in England, during the Middle Ages. Saving damsels in distress was not a full time occupation for knights and supposedly they whiled away some of their spare time throwing short "dartes" at log ends. The natural splitting of the log ends divided the log into segments and it was only a matter of time until it was further divided and point values awarded to each segment. Originally there was only a double ring on each dart board but eventually a triple ring was added.

A smaller version of the game was finally brought indoors. Throwing darts at a board certainly created a thirst so lo and behold the pub was born. Darts has also been played by royalty in England. Henry VIII was given a set of jewel-encrusted darts as a gift from one of his wives.

Darts certainly has caught on in Britain, with over 11 million people currently participating. Next to fishing, darts is the second largest participant sport in the British Isles.

Darts is now becoming a popular sport in North America as well. Millions of dollars in prize money are awarded annually. There are numerous games that can be played on the dart board, the most popular versions being 301 or 501.

Technology has now affected the game of darts with the advent of computerized dart boards. This game is played with "soft-tipped" darts and the board automatically records the score. A variety of games is offered on these machines.

This year during Celebration '90 darts will be a full competition sport. This is a first in the history of the Games. We shall be playing on the computerized boards and are hoping to attract a large number of competitors. The 301 game will be played in three categories (singles, doubles, and teams [4]).

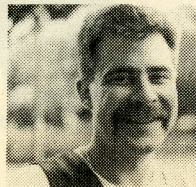

It is our hope that Celebration '90 will promote the game of darts in our community and will encourage future international competitions.

Special thanks to Irene MacDonald of the B.C. Diving Association for all her support organizing the officials and for chairing and announcing the event. Donna Sherri will function as head secretary. Thanks also go to Dan Brandon of Eugene, Oregon, for his contributions as referee during the competition. Our support to all those doing their personal best.

EQUESTRIAN

August 1990 will mark Equestrian's first appearance in international Gay Games competition, as well as a first for Canada.

Equestrian venues at Celebration '90 are situated in a beautiful country setting, away from the hustle and bustle of the city. The Equestrian events will provide a chance for participants to see some of the beautiful areas surrounding Vancouver.

Viewers and athletes at Equestrian events will see and experience a wide range of Equestrian competitions, including a 25-acre championship cross-country course. This is a rare opportunity for spectators and athletes alike, as the cross-country endurance phase of combined training is one of the most challenging and dangerous events in Equestrian competition.

Many International Gay Rodeo Association members, mainly from the United States, will compete in a variety of western events, including rodeo speed events. In addition, Celebration '90 Equestrian events will showcase the elegance of dressage, the finesse of hunters, and the excitement of jumpers.

Spectators are welcome to view the competitions from the show ring or out in the field.

For those English or western buffs, retail outlets in Langley and Cloverdale cater to those wanting western wear and riding equipment and supplies.

ICE HOCKEY

The thought of playing ice hockey in the first week of August may seem strange to some athletes in Celebration '90, but not to co-chairs Dan Gawthrop and Holly Pruden.

"Why not?" they say, beaming proudly when asked about the eight-team, round-robin tournament. Originally intended to make its debut in the Gay Games as an exhibition event, Ice Hockey was awarded medal event status in July, 1990.

"To give you an idea of the spirit of this event, men and women will be playing together—many on the same team," says Holly. "Most of us are really dedicated to the sport, so there's a healthy sense of co-operation to make this work as a mixed event."

Three of the eight teams in the tournament — Vancouver's Bladerunners, the Western Warriors (Vancouver-Saskatoon) and Edmonton — are all women. Overall, the women players outnumber the men by 59 to 35, and many of the women have played together in organized leagues.

Of the remaining five teams, composed mostly of men, only the Los Angeles Blades have played in an organized league. Other entries, from Boston, San Francisco, Seattle and Vancouver, were organized in the months leading up to the Games.

Due to the various levels of skill and experience in the tournament, the games will be played with non-contact rules, with no slap shots. Teams have been divided into 'A' and 'B' pools, based on the teams' experience, but ranking could change dramatically once the tournament begins.

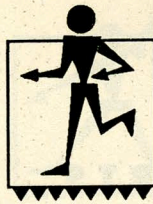

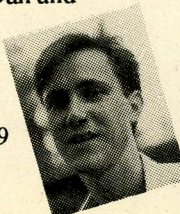

On Sunday, August 5, the first slate of games will be held simultaneously at Britannia and the Newton Arena. After an exhaustive first day in which each team will play three games, the round-robin event turns into a double knock-out format, with all games held at Britannia: four teams will play one game each on Tuesday, with the remaining four playing Wednesday, depending on the standings after Sunday's games. The best of those four will play for first place in the 'A' and 'B' pools respectively on Thursday night. Dan and Holly wish everyone a big welcome.

Co-chairs: Dan Gawthrop and Holly Pruden

Dates: August 5, 7 - 9

Times: 8 am - 10:30 pm on Aug 5; 6 pm - 10 pm Aug 7 - 9

Venue: Newton Arena and Britannia Community Centre

MARATHON

These events will be run together starting at Second Beach in Stanley Park, featuring a scenic and flat 3 loop course.

Racewalk and Physically Challenged entrants will be able to continue past their posted distances to do the full marathon, if they are entered in that event.

People of special note are Marc Hein from Kansas City — possibly the first person with AIDS to run a marathon anywhere in the world — and Jorge Alvarey of California, the first physically challenged entrant in a Gay Games marathon.

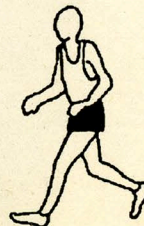

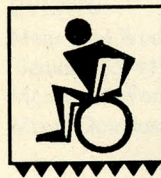

Special thanks goes to Gatorade for supplying their product and services to the marathon and also to Charles Dyer at the Heritage House Hotel for hosting the Carbo Load Party on August 10.

MARTIAL ARTS

Greetings to all martial artists and spectators! Celebration '90 is the first time martial arts has been featured at a Gay Games. In keeping with the participation philosophy of the Games, a wide variety of events is offered.

Traditionally, a bowing-in ceremony and moment of silence begins each event, enabling competitors to focus their concentration and to show respect for each other.

Events include Aikido, focussing on self development and refinement; Judo, which has been an Olympic sport since the 1950s; Kata, a prearranged set of movements that involve blocks, kicks, breathing and focus; and Kumite, which features sparring with control, purpose and focus. High belt levels of Kumite, featuring highly skilled and controlled artists, is especially fun to watch. A Self Defence Seminar useful for all levels of individual fitness will also be offered.

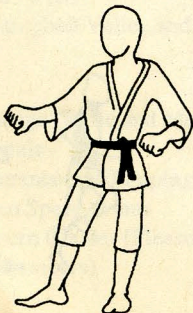

Aikido and Judo will be held at the Trout Lake Centre and Kata, Kumite and the Self Defense Seminar will be held at the West End Centre.

We invite everyone to come out and enjoy the beauty and history of martial arts. There is a saying in martial arts, "always keep a beginner's mind". We wish everyone a peaceful and enjoyable Games.

Co-Chairs: Wendy vonStatt and Michael Holmes

DATES: August 7, 9, 10 and 11
TIMES: 7 am - 9 pm

VENUE: West End Community Centre, 870 Denman St. and Trout Lake Community Centre on Victoria Dr.

PHYSIQUE

A big welcome to all 175 bodybuilders competing in the Physique events at Celebration '90. Participants have come from as far away as Holland, New Zealand and Australia. Your presence in Vancouver is another example of gay and lesbian athletes' determination to overcome barriers which have excluded some athletes in the past.

Bodybuilding has traditionally been thought a "macho" sport, but our competitors will prove that we can compete with the best without performance-enhancing drugs and still come out winners.

Bodybuilders are divided into individual age, weight and sex categories. A pairs event of men and women will be offered; and for the first time at the Gay Games, a same-sex pairs event is featured.

Bodybuilding competitions are divided into prejudice and final events. In the prejudice event, competitors perform a number of compulsory poses as well as individual posing routines to music. Competitors are judged against others in their weight category.

The final event includes finalists from the prejudice category and features individual posing routines.

Much gratitude to all those volunteers who make this event a success. Warm wishes to all athletes and visitors — hope the week is solid gold for everyone!

SOFTBALL

Slowpitch

What a response! We have over 40 teams of determined, enthusiastic participants for this tournament. It's going to be some show. We have a huge facility, the Riverway Park in Burnaby, B.C., which can accommodate up to seven simultaneous games! We'll be using other diamonds as well, in order to co-ordinate the round-robin contests for this sport. We'll see if there will be anything left of the 11-inch ball by the end of the tournament.

Come out and watch these hard-hitters who have travelled here from all over Canada, the U.S. (including Hawaii), and Europe (France and Germany). Vancouver has been hosting the Pacific Cup Softball Tournament every year since 1980, helping to lay the groundwork for this incredible tournament. A big welcome from the co-chairs and the West End Softball Association to all participants. Let's play ball!

Divisions include A for top amateurs; B and C for tournament level; D for recreational; novice (beginners) and masters for those over 40. Over 50% of the women competing are A Division players, so the competitive level will be high. Most of the male players are in the C, D and novice divisions.

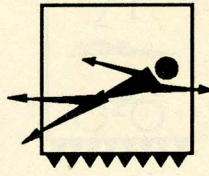

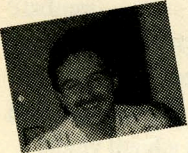

There will be extra court time available, so come on down and meet some new-squash playing friends.

SWIMMING

For the first time in Gay Games history, these swimming events are recognized and sanctioned! English Bay Swim Club is proud to sponsor the Gay Games III International Open Masters Swim Championship. Our location is the 50 metre indoor pool at the Vancouver Aquatic Centre.

The meet will run August 5 through August 8. Wind-up will be the huge Splashdance party on Wednesday evening (August 8) at Science World.

One of the highlights of the four days of swimming will no doubt be the famous Pink Flamingo relay on August 6. The relay will combine athletic prowess with pride, pageantry and the occasional sequin.

With close to 600 participants, swimming will be one of the most exciting events at Gay Games III. We hope all participants enjoy themselves in the spirit of Tom Waddell's vision.

TENNIS

“Tennis anyone?” has long since given way to “Tennis everyone?”

Once the domain of privileged upper classes, the game has become the hot ticket of the '90s.

In 1973, when Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs arrived in spangled chariots and rhinestone capes to do battle on the floor of the Houston Astrodome, the world tuned in to watch the greatest woman player of her time take on the charismatic chauvinist of men's tennis.

With King's victory (King 7-5, Riggs 6-3), tennis became the popular sport it is today. Great names in tennis — Borg, Navratilova, McEnroe and King — and countless others have emerged to take their place in history after the likes of Big Bill Tilden and Helen Wills Moody.

The Celebration '90 tennis tournament has drawn players from around the world — some 400 participants.

Practice day is Sunday to work out the kinks and overcome fatigue. Check in is 30 minutes before match. Draw party to be held Sunday, August 5 from 7 pm to 10 pm at Spats (formerly Gandydancer), 1222 Hamilton.

Co-chairs Janette Moran and Bud Foley and their committee of volunteers are thrilled with the response, and extend their warmest Canadian welcome to every player.

When the last volley has been “angled for a winner”, the last overhead “put away” and the last medal hung around a proud neck, we will stand together, winners all, secure in the knowledge that we have played a part — a very important part — in the wondrous happening of Celebration '90.

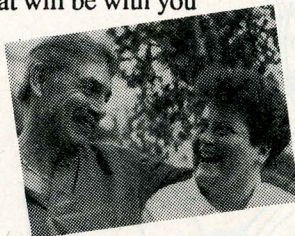

We hope you leave the Games and our country with memories of gold, silver and bronze that will be with you always.

Co-chairs: Janette Moran and Bud Foley

DATES: August 5 - 10

TIME: 8 am - dusk

TOUCH FOOTBALL

Touch Football will be introduced to the Gay Games at Celebration '90. Five teams are registered in the women's division and four in the men's division. The tournament will offer an eight team double knock-out with a consolation round in each division. This structure guarantees each team two games and one game in the consolation round.

Games will be one hour — with two 30-minute halves — with the exception of the quarter and semi-finals and the finals. These games will be regulation 80 minutes, with four 20 minute quarters.

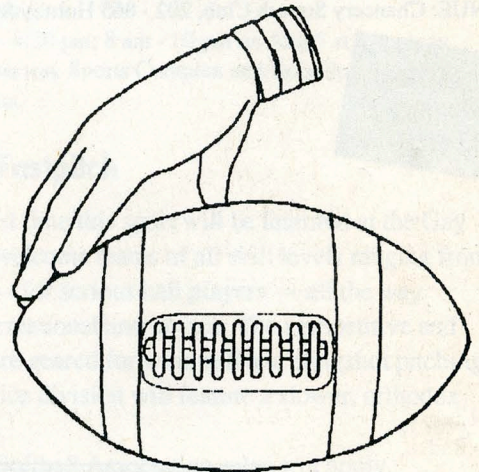

This is a non-contact sport. No blocking, hitting, metal cleats or rough tags will be allowed.

TRACK & FIELD

Track and Field at Celebration '90 will be held at B.C.'s premier facility, Swangard Stadium, from August 6 to 10, rain or shine. Over 720 participants from seven countries are registered to compete in 17 events, including:

| | | |
|---------------|-----------------|--------------|
| 100 metres | 5,000 metres | triple jump |
| 100 m hurdles | 10,000 metres | hammer throw |
| 200 metres | 4 x 100 m relay | javelin |
| 400 metres | decathlon | shot put |
| 800 metres | long jump | discus |
| 1,500 metres | high jump | |

Events are categorized by age and sex, with over eight age groups represented ranging from 19 to 64 years. More than 30% of participants are women.

The meet will be run according to International Amateur Athletic Federation rules in conjunction with B.C. Athletics officials.

The 5 K and 10 K races are the most popular events with over 250 athletes in each event. The races will be run through the 5 K course in Central Park and finish in the Stadium.

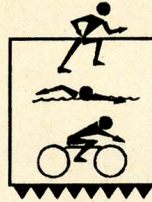

The popularity of track events has required the scheduling of seeded heats and run-offs during the week. Field events will continue throughout the week.

Many thanks go to B.C. Athletics, Burnaby Striders Track Club, Gatorade, Rainbow Racing System and the staff and crew at Swangard Stadium and Central Park. Special thanks to all the volunteers whose energies make this meet possible. Best of luck to all participants in reaching your personal best!

TRIATHLON

1.5 K Swim — 30 K Cycle — 11 K Run

Compete in one of the greatest triathlon race sites in the world! Start with an early morning swim in the water of Vancouver's English Bay. There will be controlled wave starts, each distinguished by separate coloured bathing caps. The water temperature will be approximately 65 degrees — wet suits are highly recommended. Professional lifeguards will be stationed on shore and in rescue boats along the swim course. Transition occurs at English Bay.

The swim is followed by a fast three-loop ride around world famous Stanley Park. There is a large hill leading up to Prospect Point followed by downhills leading to Second Beach. Race marshalls will be stationed at Second Beach and along route to monitor and direct racers. Cycle route begins and ends at English Bay.

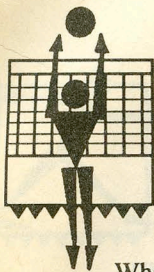

Finishing off this scenic course is a dash around Stanley Park Seawall ending up again at English Bay. Course runs along Beach Ave. to Lagoon Dr. following the park sidewalk and along the Seawall. Aid stations will be located at Lumberman's Arch, Third Beach and English Bay.

Many thanks to our sponsors including Bev Boys for providing swim caps, West Point Cycle for providing bike check staff and a $100 donation and Running Room for providing facilities for package pick-up, bike check, spot prizes and race packet bags.

VOLLEYBALL

What is going to be the most popular pastime of Celebration '90 sports participants, and what will more people be doing during the week? If you answered "playing volleyball" you're right. Registration for Volleyball has topped all the wildest expectations with over 800 athletes registered on more than 120 teams in seven separate levels. Men and women from 10 countries on five different continents will be jumping, setting and spiking from early dawn to almost midnight (7 am to 11 pm to be exact), for six exciting days.

Sites for volleyball range from the three court facility at Burnaby Central Secondary School, through the five-court/double gyms of Simon Fraser University, to the six-court sports facility of Bonsor Recreational Centre. The finals of all seven levels will be held on the evening of Friday, August 10 at Simon Fraser University and Bonsor Recreational Centre.

Teams range in experience from the Vancouver Big Scoops, who have yet to touch a volleyball without living up to their name, to the North American Gay Volleyball Association 1990 champion team, the Island Empire of Los Angeles, and everything in between. Surprises are expected from Germany, The Netherlands, France, Australia, Switzerland and New Zealand.

Because of the massive tournament schedule, volleyball can be seen during virtually every waking hour. Food facilities are available at all playing venues so you can make a day of it. The action is expected to be fast and furious during the higher level games and plenty of fun during the lower levels.

So, if you want to be where the fun and the athletes are, we'll see you at volleyball — any day, any time.

WATER POLO

Water polo originated in England and Scotland in the 1860s. The first recorded games consisted of seven players on each team and was played in the ocean off the coast of England. The game is physically extremely demanding with players sprinting from one end of the pool to the other as well as passing and catching the ball.

Teams consist of 13 players, with a maximum of 7 including the goalie allowed in the water at one time. Players are not allowed to touch the bottom or the sides of the pool during play and must catch and pass the ball with one hand only. Teams have only 35 seconds to take a shot on goal before the ball is awarded to the opposing side.

Gay and lesbian water polo in Vancouver was established through the English Bay Polo Club in 1988, with the specific intent of participating in Celebration '90. Team membership mushroomed after the very successful International Gay and Lesbian Aquatics meet in March of 1989.

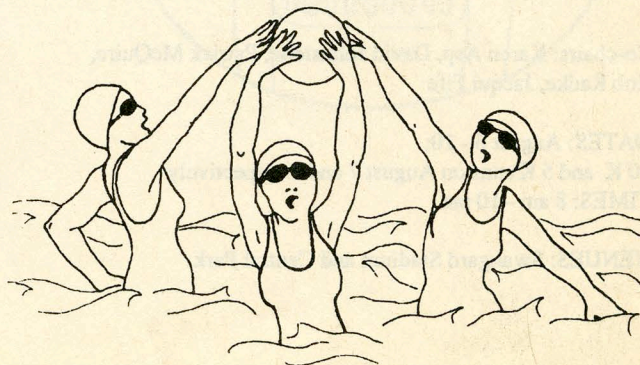

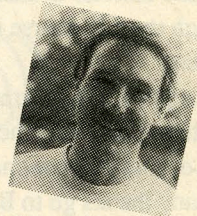

Frank Morgan and Peter Weir hope you enjoy the water polo events in the spirit of participation — the hallmark of the Gay Games.

WRESTLING

Wrestling, a contest between two unarmed opponents in hand-to-hand combat, is an ancient sport. Depictions of wrestling have been found as early as 2600 B.C.

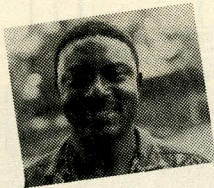

The most popular sport in ancient Greece, wrestling was introduced to the Ancient Olympic Games as part of the pentathlon in 708 B.C. The Greeks regarded wrestling as both an art and a science. In the Middle Ages, wrestling was considered an essential Knightly skill.

Wrestling style at the Gay Games will be freestyle — where a victory is awarded by securing a fall by pinning both of the opponent's shoulders to the mat. A win can also be a decision based on points, which are awarded for various wrestling maneuvers including takedowns, escapes, reverses and near-falls. Each match consists of a 5 minute period, with both wrestlers standing for the start.

Wrestling has ten weight classes in two different age divisions.

Wrestling bouts are traditionally noisy affairs, so please feel free to cheer the participants on to their personal best.

GAYLA! A Celebration of Women's Culture

Concerted Effort Productions, a partnership of three women, presents GAYLA! A Celebration of Women's Culture, an evening of women's performance in music, song and comedy. We gave a lot of thought and much discussion to our choices for this evening's line-up. We wanted to give attention and respect to women from our own community — Vancouver — and to women of colour. We wanted to present to an international audience performers who hadn't had that kind of exposure before. We wanted everyone to have an absolutely unforgettable time.

Here's the line-up, in order of appearance:

Kate Clinton, fumerist (feminist-humourist), and mistress of ceremonies for the evening, who will take the stage between each of the performances. Kate joins us from the middle of her summer-long performance schedule in Provincetown, Massachusetts. Her sense of humour and fun about us as lesbians, as feminists, is part of what keeps our spirits up.

Heidi Archibald, a Vancouver singer of the blues, will fill the theatre with sounds of the music women have been making for decades. The Blatant Blues Band (Brenda Baird — keyboard player, Wendy Solloway — bassist, Linda Aum Rhyne — drummer, Karen Graves — saxophone player) will perform with her. Heidi has a voice you'll feel as well as hear, and not soon forget. The BBB are experienced Vancouver artists, who are together here for the first time.

We can't wait to hear Katari Taiko turn the Orpheum itself into part of their drum ensemble. This collective was formed to help bridge cultural gaps, and as an expression of Japanese-Canadian identity. In Japan Taiko (literally huge drums) has been the province of men, but in North America women have sustained this remarkable art form. The sound of the drums, and the movements of the drummers will bring you to the edge of your seat, delight and move you.

Betty is three women from New York, (sisters Amy and Bitsy Ziff and Alyson Palmer), whose 1989 performance at the Michigan Women's Music Festival convinced us they were perfect for this event. They've been described as "the Marx brothers on acid." Their witty commentary on the world we live in is delivered through a cappella singing, instrumentals, and a wacky cabaret style pattern. These women will startle and challenge you, as well as make you laugh. Look out!

Ferron, whose particular way of expressing both our personal and political joys and sorrows has made her poetry a part of our lives, will close the show. Some of us will remember listening to Ferron in the Full Circle Cafe, others at the Soft Rock or at the Quadra Club, all here in Vancouver. And then she moved out into the whole world, and some of you will have heard her singing in your home town. Well, it's a pleasure to have her back home, and on this particular stage.

Concerted Effort Productions is producing this event as a benefit for Celebration '90. Carol Rosset, Frances Wasserlein and Amanda White have been working together on this event since late 1988. Gay Hawley has recently joined us as Technical Director. We've had a very good time doing this work, which is why we decided to do it in the first place. We look forward to sharing the fruits of our labour with all of you. We are grateful to all those who have volunteered their time and energy with us to make GAYLA! A Celebration of Women's Culture possible.

MUSIC

RISE UP!

RISE UP! is a concert featuring the Vancouver Men's Chorus at the Orpheum on August 9. As the first and for many years the only gay chorus in Canada, the Vancouver Men's Chorus has developed a large and faithful audience in its home city.

For RISE UP! the Vancouver Men's Chorus will be joined by a very special trio of international guests artists. The performances of Ronnie Gilbert, Roy Bailey and David Sereda together with the 75-voice Chorus promise to electrify a sell-out Orpheum audience.

Ronnie Gilbert's singing career began in wartime Washington. Ronnie joined Pete Seeger, Lee Hays and Fred Hellerman to form the legendary folk group, The Weavers. Forty years later, looking back on a career that has taken her from the Village Vanguard to Carnegie Hall, Ronnie is still belting it out for what she believes in.

Roy Bailey has been enthusiastically recognized by audiences as a major artist who has successfully combined artistic and political commitment. His songs have a biting content — songs of love, of injustice, of the despoliation of the planet for profit and power.

David Sereda — a familiar name to Vancouverites — has worked as a solo performer, recording artist, bandleader, musical director and composer. He has appeared as the opening act for many fine artists, most notably Joan Armatrading, and performed at many Gay Pride events across Canada.

The concert will be signed for the hearing-impaired by Kevin Gallagher, artistic interpreter for the Seattle Men's Chorus.

Please join the Chorus and friends in this from-the-heart ourpouring of gay and lesbian pride!

SWING '90 — City Swing Band and Tap Troupe

“Swing '90” will be an evening of dancing and floor shows featuring the big band sound of City Swing Dance Band with vocalist Gail Wilson and the San Francisco Tap Troupe, Company LA and the Vancouver Men’s Chorus. Doors open for cocktails at 7:30 pm to get everyone “in the mood” for pre-show dance lessons.

An 18-piece dance/show band from San Francisco, City Swing recreates the sounds of the Big Band era with a contemporary flair and feeling. Three-time winners of the Cable Car “Entertainer of the Year Award”, City Swing is billed as a band in the Glenn Miller tradition. Under the direction of Wayne Love, the band is a hit wherever it goes.

San Francisco Tap Troupe and Gail Wilson have been appearing together for nine years and have previously performed at the Democratic Convention, the Hollywood Bowl and EXPO '86 in Vancouver.

Company LA — known as CoLA — was formed in 1983 to work with Bernadette Peters at a gala Dorothy Chandler Pavilion performance, and over the years has become one of the premier groups of its kind anywhere. Under the direction of Bob Daggett — assistant director of the Gay Men’s Chorus of L.A. — the group has attained new heights of public acclaim for its performances across the U.S.

The Commodore Ballroom has grown up with Vancouver. The beat has gone on, the doors have never closed and the old timer has never looked better. With “Swing '90” the best is soon to come!

Lesbian and Gay Bands of America

Lesbian and Gay Bands of America (LGBA) is the national musical organization comprised of concert/marching bands from cities across the United States. LGBA was formed in 1982 when seven independent bands from across the nation met in Chicago to discuss common concerns, share information and make music together. Since then, LGBA has grown to 18 full member bands to date, with three new bands in formation.

LGBA is an active, dynamic organization promoting the unique art of concert/marching bands within the lesbian and gay community. By bringing together men and women who share a common love of music, bands help create and enhance the spirit of "community" from which they draw their members. LGBA is proud of its musical excellence and dedication to high performance standards. LGBA is equally proud of its unique way of proclaiming "we are who we are". LGBA member bands are integral parts of the communities in which they serve and make a powerful statement for the lesbian and gay community in an apolitical way. They make music together creating a family where affection is more important than affectional preference. LGBA "bands together" to show that people of different sexes, ages, creeds, colors, challenges and affectional preferences can build a strong caring community. LGBA and its member bands provide a continuing symbol of pride for the gay and lesbian community, its families and friends.

Lesbian and Gay Bands of America is very proud to be a part of Celebration '90: Gay Games III and Cultural Festival. LGBA salutes its brothers and sisters from around the world for their courage, strength of conviction and talents.

WORDS WITHOUT BORDERS

Celebration '90's Gay and Lesbian Literary Gathering

We are explorers of a new terrain in a world without borders. We are creators of our lives, of our communities. In the face of discrimination, censorship and heterosexism, gay and lesbian writers over the years have exposed the social and psychological boundaries that regulate our lives. No longer are we settling for the stereotypes and gender categories imposed on our communities. Telling our stories has moved us into the open.

In honour of our literary tradition and in the spirit of openness, Celebration '90 brings together writers from around the world. This is Canada's largest gathering of gay and lesbian authors—a much needed milestone in our quest for personal and social identity. Along with athletes, other artists, volunteers and visitors, our presence is meant as encouragement for all gays and lesbians to break through that oppressive silence that always tries to control our lives.

This is a week for lesbian and gay writers to get together—to discuss, to listen, and perhaps to cross some of the borders that exist within our own communities. We offer a week of panels, workshops, lunches and lunches, presentations and readings where writers and readers, participants and audiences representing the diversity of our lives can be together to acknowledge how far we have come and to see the distance still to go.

This is a week for new and emerging writers to share words and the stage with the experienced writers in our communities. New generations are moving our prose and poetry beyond established literary traditions, looking for ways to make our inner lives visible.

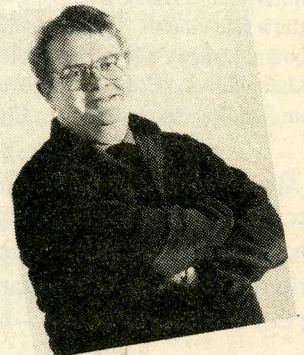

Meet a writer at the Literary Gala at the Arts Club on Granville Island. Attend a panel discussion at Simon Fraser University Downtown Campus at Harbour Centre during the week. Visit our Words Without Borders Book Fair to have your favourite author sign a book. Toast a writer at a book launch. Or have lunch with a playwright at the Water Street Cafe. Read your story or poem—every evening we offer an open mike for you to share an experience with us. And look for the Words Without Borders display on gay and lesbian writers at the Vancouver Public Library, Robson and Burrard, during the week of Celebration 90—a project of Out on the Shelves, Vancouver's gay and lesbian library.

Gay Games III and Cultural Festival is the most significant event our Vancouver community has created. Words Without Borders is proud to be involved and hope that Gay Games IV will carry on bringing together writers from around the world to celebrate and build our culture.

We have experienced a tough decade. AIDS has affected us all. If it weren't for the strength of our culture, gay and lesbian communities would have been destroyed. Instead, we are all stronger, wiser and more caring about ourselves and each other. It's appropriate as we enter the last decade of the millenium that we pause to honour gays and lesbians from around the world who suffer from repression, disease and homophobia. At the same time let's celebrate the work we have done in building our communities, in living in the open.

VISUAL ARTS

ARTCELEBRATION '90

Gay and lesbian artists have in the last few years begun exhibiting more works which illuminate their lives. Sadly, art by gay people — especially when it celebrates sexuality — has been controversial and the subject of censorship, viewed for only the content and not the artistic value.

The threat to freedom of expression, issues of censorship, the desire to celebrate our lives and the simple wish to display art objects of beauty and creativity, animates a series of exhibitions which have been organized in Vancouver as part of or to complement Celebration '90: Gay Games III and Cultural Festival.

Artcelebration '90 — presented by Celebration '90 — is a juried exhibition of paintings, drawings, photographs and sculpture by lesbian and gay artists from the Vancouver region held at the Community Arts Council Gallery. Opening August 2, the show will run throughout the Games ending on August 19.

The Pitt International Gallery, 36 Powell Street (681-6740) has organized an invitational exhibition Depiction and Resistance. The show opens on August 2 and continues to the 23. Gallery hours are Wednesday to Saturday, 1 to 5 pm (until 9 pm on Thursdays).

ARTISAN'S MARKET presented by the Queers in Art Committee

This is the first time an Artisan's Market has been included in the Gay Games. This is indeed an important adjunct, enabling us all to celebrate and to support individual artists.

The Artisan's Market provides an opportunity to purchase those things that spring from the unique, vivid and queer artistic community. In the sweet buy and buy, you'll be able to take home unique creative items ranging from photography, prints, and paintings to jewelery, t-shirts, chain mail, pottery and more. Perhaps you'd like to take home a really permanent purchase in memory of Celebration '90 — a tattoo.

The market will be an international showcase featuring at least one hundred artists and

The Western Front Gallery, 303 East 8th Ave. (876-9343) has the remarkable interactive exhibition/installation Drawing the Line. The collaborative group Kiss & Tell (artists Persimmon Blackbridge, Lizard Jones and Susan Stewart) use one hundred black and white photographs to explore lesbian sexuality and censorship and — by encouraging visitors to comment directly on the images — explore the issue of where or if we should "Draw the Line." The show opens on August 3 at 8 pm and runs to August 18. Gallery hours are Tuesday to Saturday 1 to 5 pm. The artists will talk at 8 pm on August 6.

The Fine Arts Gallery at the University of British Columbia is showing a retrospective exhibition of New York photographer Peter Hujar. Famed for his images of male sexuality, Hujar uses photography to explore both personal and social issues. Organized by the Grey Gallery at New York University, the show runs from August 1 to September 15. The gallery is located in the basement of the Main Library on the UBC campus and is open Tuesday to Saturday 1 to 5 pm.

We'd like to thank our volunteers for their tremendous commitment and hard work. Special thanks go to Evie Mandel for her computer wizardry, Elena Underhill for poster design, Shaira Holman for capturing us on film and Maggie Putman for promotional poster design.

The theatre component of the Celebration '90 Cultural Festival will feature a broad variety of gay and lesbian plays and theatrical fare.

The highly acclaimed Warm Wind in China by Canadian playwright Kent Stetson deals with the issues of a family coming to terms with the death of a loved one. It is a play written with warmth, humour, humanity and poetic imagery.

After a 10-year absence from the Vancouver theatre scene, Robert Graham returns from Houston and the Alley Theatre as director of this exciting piece. The cast includes actors who have worked in major theatres in Vancouver and across Canada, Weston MacMillan, Steve Hilton, Florence Patterson and French Tickner.

The Firehall Theatre will house an evening of two one-act plays, providing an international flavour to the theatre event and tackling the issue of gay and lesbian relationships from both a modern and historical viewpoint.

Radclyffe ... The Well of ... is co-written by Australians Adele Saleem and Sara Hardy. Set in 1928, the play is about two extraordinary women, Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge and Hall's book that made them notorious, The Well of Loneliness. The book's theme, love between women, caused moral outrage and government suppression in England.

The second production is A Lonely Romance, written and performed by Jim Vetter of Boston. The story of a sensitive young man lost in a fantasy world of old movie romance in his quest for real love, it mixes old movie memories with techniques of theatre, comedy, dance, mime and magic.

The Station Street Arts Centre will be hosting Ronnie Burkett and his Theatre of Marionettes from Calgary. Ronnie works and performs with traditional marionette puppets in a style reminiscent of Waylon Flowers.

Utilizing the traditional character of "Punch", he incorporates an unlikely character into a modern setting to satirize politics, social morays, famous people — even the audience.

OUT ON SCREEN—

Vancouver's 2nd Annual Gay and Lesbian Film Festival

Out on Screen means something special at the movies for the thousands who'll be taking in Celebration '90's cultural offerings in August. Out on Screen is an expanded line-up of premiere showings, classic rescreenings and flicks retrieved from celluloid closets the world over.

Don't miss the the film fest's opening night on August 2 at the Ridge Theatre which features the Canadian premieres of two acclaimed films from the U.S. Winner of this year's Best Documentary Oscar, Common Threads: Stories from the Quilt will be shown as a benefit for the Vancouver PWA Coalition. The film's directors, Jeffrey Friedman and Robert Epstein (director of Word is Out and Oscar winner The Times of Harvey Milk) will be on hand to introduce the film. Threads will be followed by Men in Love, the widely acclaimed new release about a man who rediscovers himself and his sexuality after his lover dies of AIDS. Producer and co-writer Scott Catamas will be present to talk about the film. This screening is a benefit for Out on Screen.

Here's a glimpse of the rest of the festival's program:

A Corps Perdu by the Swiss-born Quebec director Lea Pool. A brooding, emotional film that revolves around the life of Pierre who has been shaken from his complacency by a trip to Central America and the departure of the couple he has lived with for 10 years as lovers.

Oranges are not the Only Fruits is the engagingly intelligent story of an independent-minded girl growing up in working-class Lancashire in the '60s. She is forced to deal with the limited tolerance of her mother's fundamentalist Christian world when the gently budding romance with her girlfriend is brutally made public.

Out of Our Time, tells the story of two circles of women artists in Chicago — one in 1938 and one in 1988 — struggling to find their niches in the male-dominated world of publishing.

Chopper Chicks in Zombietown tells the story of "a gang of eight misfit cycle sluts" who end up taking on a band of zombies in order to save a desert town. Need more be said?

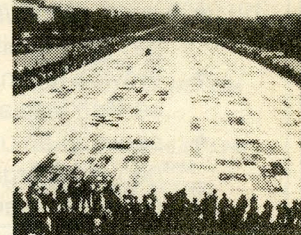

Described as the only 1950s film to deal openly with lesbianism, the French film Olivia tells the story of a teacher's love for one of her students.

Karen Thorsen's James Baldwin: The Price of a Ticket is a documentary that follows Baldwin's evolution from book reviewer to essayist to novelist and his 1955 book Giovanni's Room. A personal, intimate and moving film.

Last year's festival favourite Salut Victor by Quebec filmmaker Claire Poirer is back, telling the story of the friendship of two older gay men with divergent life experiences.

Three Vancouver filmmakers will be premiering their works at the festival. Lorna Boschman's Orpheus Awakening will be shown with Harris Taylor's Relatively Speaking and Gay Hawley's Too Close for Comfort.

AIDS TREATMENT NEWS

Published twice monthly by John S. James, AIDS Treatment News reports on experimental and standard treatments, and examines the ethical and public-policy issues around AIDS treatment research and treatment access.

"Without any doubt, John James is one of the three or four most influential writers on the AIDS epidemic in America today. His meticulously researched reports in AIDS Treatment News have allowed tens of thousands of his readers to literally gain a new grasp on life. More significantly, his on-going analysis of the failings of the government regulatory and research establishment inspired much of the nation's AIDS activism today and continues to inform both lay and expert readers about the challenges ahead. His work holds a place of honor in the history of the AIDS epidemic."

Brent Nicholson Earle

In 1986 and 1987, Earle ran 32,000 kilometres around the U.S. to raise money and awareness for AIDS organizations in America. On June 7 he launched a second run from San Francisco — the Rainbow Run for the end of AIDS. The Rainbow Run is scheduled to arrive in Vancouver on August 4 for the Opening Ceremonies for Celebration '90. Earle will carry the rainbow flag, the symbol of the lesbian and gay community, into B.C. Place Stadium as part of the Opening Ceremonies.

The Rainbow Run is dedicated to Tom Waddell, founder of the Gay Games and Keith Haring, artist and humanitarian, both lost to AIDS.

Peter Gritt

Peter Gritt will be participating as an athlete and as a featured visual artist at Celebration '90. Gritt's fabric creations will be highly visible throughout Vancouver during the Games. Ceremonial banners and flags, with bold and vibrant designs and textures, will accompany various outdoor events in Stanley Park and the Plaza of Nations. The Celebration Centre will showcase a unique, 17 metre work inaugurated to reflect the spirit and colour of the Games. Gritt's intent is to celebrate flying colours. "The banners, wafting in the wind, help liberate people's vision, encouraging them to let go of preconceptions and let the banners' colours tickle their eyes."

Architecture for Events and Exhibitions

The preparations for this celebration has been for us a time of finding community. In designing the architectural "look" for Gay Games III, we have been continually inspired by the many and wide-ranging contributions of the men and women who have helped us in the process.

We wanted to evoke the energy, strength, beauty and grace that lesbians and gay men from around the world would bring to the Games. In our designs for the booths, banners, standards, triumphal arch and the Celebration Centre, we have held to a strict and powerful language of forms. Using the stability of the triangle, and the vitality of the line in tension, all of our structures can collapse for easy transport. Yet when up, in the wink of an eye, they can be seen flexing and stretching their "muscles" as they respond to the wind.

The character of the West Coast is reflected in the marine fittings and yellow ropes. The fabrics — their jewel-like colours from the logo — are bright, sexy, sunny, sporty — just like the clothes worn by the athletes. The shiny black bamboos provide not only an efficient strength/weight ratio, but resonate with the traditions of bamboo in festivals from Japan, China, Bali and India.

Here in Vancouver, it all comes together: lesbians and gay men exercising their bodies and minds — with pleasure and pride — on the edge of the Pacific Ocean. We hope we have helped make this an event to remember.

Christine Macy and Sarah Bonnemaïson

Christine Macy received her architectural education at U.C. Berkeley and the Technical University of Vienna, leading to a B.A. in Architecture from U.C. Berkeley and a Master's in Architecture from M.I.T.

Sarah Bonnemaïson has received her Bachelor's degrees in Mathematics from Concordia in Montreal and in Architecture from Pratt Institute in New York and her Master of Science in Architectural Studies from M.I.T.
